1. On 7/27/08 after having been ignored by defendant #2 BO J. King, I approached (with Helen L. on) Corporal Hanna for an answer as to why I/we were not allowed/ permitted to go to Chapel and her response was "YOUR BEAT" and continued to walk away without explanation. While I was housed in Unit #6 SECC/Vol it is where this incident occurred. Corporal Hanna came to Unit #6 due to the connection by myself and other inmates to get C.O. J. King's attention and were ultimately ignored by him.

At 6pm 7-27-08, transfer Chapel, Unit #5 SECC-Vol was released to go and Unit #6 SECC-Vol and my inquiries to go were ignored. This CO also told us at 5pm he would need the cleaner when he came to take us to Chapel at 6pm. We /he was here ready we had to clean before we went to Chapel and did so to go without permission to do so.
3. The defendant on 7-27-08 having been responsible to handle my panic /anxiety attacks for having received defendant #1's response to going to Chapel question (6:20pm-7/27/08) approached me telling me to calm down and that I was denied Chapel to protect me from the leaders of Unit #5. After saying "Do you have a Bible? Then have a service yourself"!!!

To Whom It May Concern:

I Pamela J. Bergmann, SBI # 175662, Unit #6 am writing this grievance to address revocation of privileges, especially those pertaining to my right as an inmate to practice religion. Since July 27, 2008 after an incident where another inmate offensively touched me I have been housed not only in an isolation cell but also in Unit #6. I have not received one definite, defined, or alike answer as to why these movements have occurred. I have been told I'm the problem on Unit #5 (Officer Dial), I am not in protective custody (Officer Mills), and many various statements leading me to believe I'm being sanctioned. I have knowledge of my status and being in Unit #6 where I had to clean bugs, urine, and fecal matter out of the bathroom just in order to maintain personal hygiene. Let alone later being ordered to clean the whole Unit #6 myself without being given credit for work hours. Being told by staff that it was my duty to maintain my living quarters which was filthy, inhumanely so when I arrived waiting twenty-four hours for cleaners to clean an area I hadn't soiled.

On 7/29/08, the night to which after numerous requests from myself and Helen Leon throughout a 24 hr period received cleaners. At which time the Officer ~~(Name)~~ (Spa?) on duty whom brought up the materials to clean asked if we were going to Chapel. Responding that we would like to go in a positive manner began cleaning and at 6pm heard this officer release Unit #5 to Chapel and not Unit #6. Anticipating being taken to Chapel and returning the cleaners at that time as per requested I was ready as the Officer proceeded to ignore requests to be released to go to Chapel. Not until 6:45pm-7pm was I acknowledged pertaining to the Chapel matter.

Being denied my right as an inmate to attend religious belief and traditional rights to practice religion as an inmate or Not. Now the correctional officers I am naming as employees of the State of Delaware have denied my right to practice my religious beliefs. Of course I felt hurt, saddened, and scared. (Especially w/ a history of panic anxiety attacks). Even on murder charges inmates have the right to practice religion. Why then → Was my right to practice religion and attend Chapel denied?? 7/29/08

I have no sanction papers, no violations of rules, write-ups, nothing to obstruct my way to the Chapel except Officer Hanna's answer "your DEAT!!" when I asked to go to the Chapel service. An answer so pleasantly informative as a way of saying (Sorry About Your Luck) and also likely not I became upset with my anxiety disorder (No doubt) for I thought it was a dignified question deserving a dignified answer. (3) ... At least two words from Officer Hanna was better than being ignored by the Officer ~~who~~ whom promised we would go to Chapel at 6pm upon the fact ~~we~~ returned the cleaners, whom let Unit #5 out to Chapel ignoring Unit #6 totally.

At this time I must admit that my anxiety level maxed out as I began to cry due to lack of proper medication and Officer Hanna returned with Lt _____ to tell me to calm down as I tried to explain I wanted to go to Chapel and anxiety is triggered by uniformed anger in this situation and the Lt _____ told me bluntly "To protect me"!! From those on Unit #5!! (Officer Mills said no "pe"-very confused). Just as I was told (7/29-6:30pm approx) by Officer Hanna and Lt _____ "that I am being protected from the women in Unit #5", as the reason I couldn't attend Chapel. The Lt _____ also told me over his shoulder & started smiling, "Do you have a Bible?" (Responded - Yes) "Pick it up and practice religion". At this point trying to calm my panic anxiety attack I said my Serenity Prayer aloud only to be chuckled at by Officer Hanna and Lt _____ as they walked away again humored by tears and crying brought on by my disorder of anxiety.

I cannot attend Chapel with the women of Unit #5, but I can stand alone in med line in the hallways, eat with them at cchow, walk bare unguarded waiting for doors to be opened, BUT CANNOT GO TO CHAPEL w/ THEM??? I Question and Grieve to Motive of their denial on 7/29/08 to attend Chapel Services!! One can possibly (?) justify being "guarded/protected"

I Grieve Explanation !!

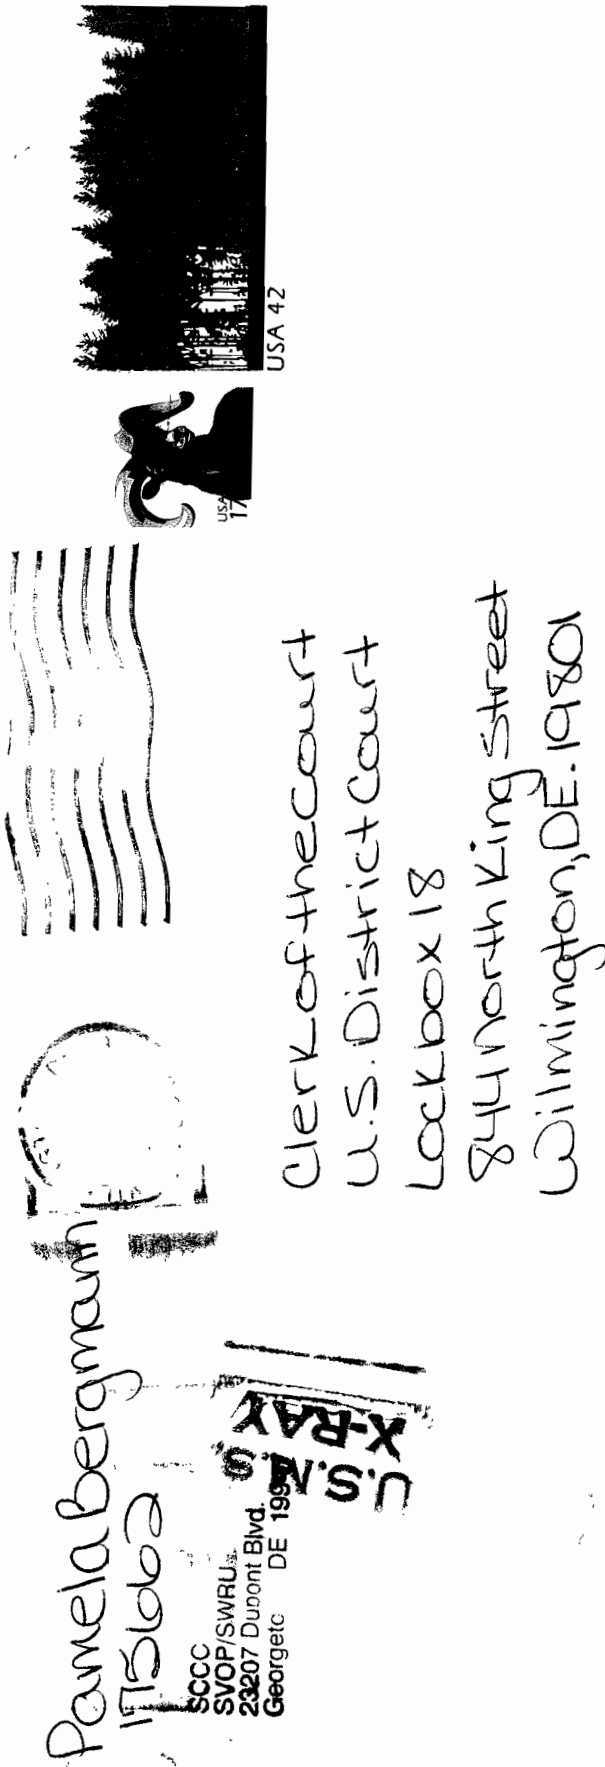

- Full sentence explanations as to why I couldn't go to Chapel.
(1st step was on 7/10/08 - verbally)
- To protect other inmates rights to religious practice.
- An apology, if at all practical, as to the way it was told I could not go.
- Access to religious practices the remainder of my time.
- Credit toward hours to my fines for obtaining Unit #6

Thank-you,
Sincerely,
Tamara J. Bergmann
